Art For The Bridge raises funds for breast-cancer patients

BY TERRY VAN WILLSON

Art For The Bridge, a two-party fundraising concept, will feature a black-tie dinner and art auction Sept. 11 and 13 at the Dallas Women's Museum.

A recent afternoon tea honoring members of the Art For The Bridge auction and dinner committee was hosted by Screen Door restaurant.

Artists, galleries and collectors graciously donated artwork with proceeds benefiting The Bridge Breast Network, which provides diagnostic and treatment services for uninsured women with breast cancer.

Sponsorships for individuals and corporations, or anyone interested in supporting The Bridge Breast Network are available by visiting artforthebridge.org.
