

Denim Goes with Everything at DIFFA/Dallas Collection

Daniel Apperton, Molly DeVoss

The design-minded and the philanthropy-focused gathered to bid on jean jackets revamped by renowned designers at DIFFA/Dallas Collection 2008: Cinéma de la Vie at the Hilton Anatole. Chairman Neale Jones, co-chair Marc Serrao, Krickett Hancock Goss and Randall Goss, honorary chair Larry Hamilton, Jill and honorary chair Ted Hamilton, Greg Haynes Johnson, and Gretchen Kelly oohed and ahed with the catwalk crowd when not only models, but also acrobats and dancers filled the runway. The top seller — Abi Ferrin's jacket featuring an ostrich leather collar and the designer's signature print lining — included a six-day vacation with Tollie's African Safaris. Roman Smith, Bethany and John Siggins, Carol Quist, and David Hess all had the chance to bid on the one-of-a-kind blues. Hays Sibley

